GENERAL INFORMATION: This application is for use in requesting special appraisal for restricted use recreational, park or scenic land under Tax Code Chapter 23, Sections 23.81-23.87 (Subchapter F). You are entitled to have land you own appraised under Subchapter F for the tax year for which you are applying if you meet all six of the following conditions.

1. You own the property on Jan. 1.
2. The property is at least five acres in size.
3. Its use is restricted by deed for at least 10 years as recreational, park or scenic land as provided by Subchapter F.
4. The use of the land does not result in any form of private gain.
5. The property has been devoted exclusively for use as recreational, park or scenic land for the preceding year.
6. You are using and intend to use the property exclusively as recreational, park, or scenic land in the current year.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS: You must furnish all information and documentation required by this application so that the chief appraiser is able to determine whether the statutory qualifications for special appraisal have been met. This document and all supporting documentation must be filed with the appraisal district office in each county in which the property is located. Do not file this document with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. A directory with contact information for appraisal district offices may be found on the Comptroller's website comptroller.texas.gov/taxinfo/proptax.

APPLICATION DEADLINES: The completed application and supporting documents must be submitted to the appraisal district between Jan. 1 and April 30 of the tax year for which you request the special appraisal. For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for filing the application by written order for a single period not to exceed 60 days. The chief appraiser may disapprove the application and request additional information. If the chief appraiser requests additional information from you, the information must be furnished within 30 days after the date of the request or the application is denied. For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for furnishing the information by written order for a single 15-day period. If the chief appraiser denies the application, you may protest that determination to the county appraisal review board under Tax Code Chapter 41.

DUTY TO NOTIFY: Once restricted use appraisal for recreational, park, or scenic land is allowed, an application does not have to be filed annually during the term of the deed restriction unless the ownership of the land changes or eligibility for the appraisal ends. The chief appraiser may require a new application to be filed to confirm that the land is currently eligible for the special appraisal by sending written notice and an application form. If eligibility for the restricted use appraisal ends, the property owner must notify the appraisal office in writing before May 1 after the eligibility ends. If the deed restriction on recreational, park or scenic land receiving special appraisal expires or the property is diverted to a use other than recreational, park or scenic land, a rollback in taxes and interest will be imposed on the property for each of the five years preceding the year the change of use occurs or the deed restriction expires. If the deed restriction is violated by using the property for other than recreational, park or scenic land before the restriction expires, a penalty is imposed for the year the violation occurred.
