Do not file this document with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. A directory with contact information for appraisal district offices may be found on the Comptroller's website.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for filing the application by written order for a single period not to exceed 60 days.

CHIEF APPRAISER ACTIONS

The chief appraiser shall, as soon as practicable but not later than 90 days after the later of the following two dates: date the applicant's land is first eligible for appraisal as recreational, park or scenic land; or the date the applicant provides the information necessary for the chief appraiser to determine the applicant's right to appraisal as recreational, park or scenic land, make one of the following decisions:

- approve the application and grant recreational, park or scenic land appraisal;

This request must be delivered via a written notice to the applicant as soon as practicable but not later than the 30th day after the application was filed with the appraisal district. The notice must specify the additional information the applicant must provide so the chief appraiser can make a determination. The applicant must provide the additional information not later than the 30th day after the date of the request or the application will be denied. The chief appraiser may extend this deadline for a single period not to exceed 15 days for good cause shown.

DENIED APPLICATIONS

The chief appraiser may deny an application. He or she must notify the applicant in writing not later than the fifth day after the determination by certified mail. It must state and fully explain each reason for the denial. The landowner can file a protest of the denial with the appraisal review board.

DUTY TO NOTIFY

Once restricted use appraisal for recreational, park, or scenic land is allowed, an application does not have to be filed annually during the term of the deed restriction unless the ownership of the land changes or eligibility for the appraisal ends. The chief appraiser may require a new application to be filed to confirm that the land is currently eligible for the special appraisal by sending written notice and an application form. If eligibility for the restricted use appraisal ends, the property owner must notify the appraisal office in writing before May 1 after the eligibility ends. If the deed restriction on recreational, park or scenic land receiving special appraisal expires or the property is diverted to a use other than recreational, park or scenic land, a rollback in taxes will be imposed on the property for each of the three years preceding the year the change of use occurs or the deed restriction expires. If the deed restriction is violated by using the property for other than recreational, park or scenic land before the restriction expires, a penalty is imposed for the year the violation occurred.
